FRIDAY, APRIL 23, 1819.

At an adjourned meeting of the Alexandria Artillery, held at Duffey's tavern on Thursday evening, 15th of April, 1819, James Grigsby in the chair.

A letter was read by the chairman from captain G. Griffith, tendering his resignation as commander of the company—lieut. Carson's letter of resignation was also read, and also a similar one from lieut. Stewart, when the following resolutions were unanimously adopted:

Resolved, That although we deeply regret the resignations of captain G. Griffith, lieutenants Carson and Stewart, as officers of the artillery, yet that regret is lessened by a full persuasion of the correct and honorable motives which actuated them in so doing.

A letter addressed to the commanding officer of the artillery, by the secretary of the Independent Blues, with a copy of their proceedings at a meeting held on the 9th inst. was received and read.

On motion it was resolved, unanimously, That the thanks of this company be presented to the late officers and members of the Independent Blues for the very flattering terms in which they have communicated their sentiments of the artillery, and that G. Griffith esq. be requested to communicate the same.

The following resolutions were then adopted:

1. Resolved, In consequence of the resignation of our officers, that the company be dissolved.

2. Resolved, That we will meet on Saturday the 17th inst. in full uniform at three o'clock P. M. to unite with our brother soldiers, the Independent Blues, for the purpose of being disbanded.

3. Resolved, That the members at present attached to the Artillery pledge themselves to reorganize the company should a change of circumstances take place that will enable them to do so with honor to themselves.

4. Resolved, That the medal belonging to the company be presented to G. Griffith Esq. our late commander, as a mark of our high respect.

5. Resolved, That our standard be lodged with James Carson, Esq. our late lieutenant, for safe keeping.

6. Resolved, That any surplus fund in the hands of the treasurer be presented by him to the Mechanic Relief Society of Alexandria.

7. Resolved, That Charles Norris, John Myers and James Mills be a committee to prepare an address to be presented to our late officers.

JAMES GRIGSBY, Chairman.
JAMES M'CLEISH, Secretary.

ALEXANDRIA, April 17, 1819.

To Captain G. Griffith, Lieutenants J. Carson and William Stewart.

GENTLEMEN,

Your letters of resignation being duly received, agreeable to a resolution adopted by the members of the "Alexandria Artillery Company," and in their behalf, we tender you the sentiments of our highest respects.

We beg leave to express to you our sincere approbation of the manner in which you have uniformly discharged the various duties of your station, more particularly during the struggles of the late war, which tested the patriotism of our citizens, and having to contend with a powerful invading enemy, you deservedly acquired the citizen soldier's best reward, the approbation and gratitude of your country. Having been long associated, and during which time the greatest harmony and friendly intercourse has existed in the corps, it is a subject of deep regret that any circumstance should occur to cause our separation. But in so doing, we are satisfied that you have been actuated by the same honorable principles which uniformly governed your conduct through life; and should our country again call for your services, we are convinced you would again rally round the standard, and be found amongst the foremost of her defenders—therefore, should the wheel of time make such a revolution as to remove the cause which occasioned your resignations, we unanimously shall hail that as a day of pleasure, and re-organize the company, and request you to take command.

In taking leave of you as our commanding officers, you will be pleased to accept our best wishes for your future happiness; and be assured that the many acts of kindness we have experienced from your hands will ever be held in grateful remembrance.

Signed. CHAS. NORRIS, JOHN MYERS, J'S. M. MILLS. } Committee.

A true copy.

ALEXANDRIA, April 19, 1819.

To Messrs. C. Norris, J. Myers and J. Mills.

GENTLEMEN,

Your letter of the 17th, accompanied with a copy of the proceedings of the Artillery Company, adopted at a meeting held on the 15th inst. has just been handed us.

The kind manner you are pleased to notice our conduct, under existing circumstances, is to us highly gratifying.

For any attention in our power, we were more than repaid by the promptness with which every order was obeyed, and by the cheerful discharge of many trying and hazardous services, during the continuance of the company on permanent duty, without one instance of unmilitary conduct to lessen their value.

We return you our thanks, individually, for the renewed tender of your confidence should a re-organization of the company take place, and for your strict attention to us at all times.

In the peace and prosperity of your country—the approbation of one of her ablest defenders, (commodore Porter), and of your fellow citizens, you have your recompence.

It might be considered presuming in us to make any farther remarks on your conduct, after the eulogium passed upon you by the gallant commander above mentioned.

As far as our wishes for your happiness will avail, with cheerfulness and sincerity we add them. Accept for yourselves and the gentlemen who lately composed the Alexandria Artillery Company the assurance of our sincere respect and esteem.

GREENBERRY GRIFFITH,
JAMES CARSON,
WILLIAM STEWART.

At an adjourned meeting of the Alexandria Independent Blues, held at the Court-House on Friday evening 9th instant, Ensign I. P. Thompson in the Chair.

A letter was communicated by the chairman from Captain M'Knight, tendering his resignation as commander of the company, when, on motion, it was Resolved, unanimously, That the thanks of the company be presented to Charles M'Knight, esq. in consideration of the respect the Blues entertain for him as a gentleman and a soldier, and of their grateful remembrance of the uniform and decided conduct which has characterized him as the first officer of this company.

Lieutenant Ramsay's resignation was tendered by the chairman at the same time, when it was Resolved, unanimously, That the thanks of the company be presented to lieut. Wm. Ramsay, with the assurance of the high regard and respect those of late under his command entertained for his character and services.

The resignation of Ensign Thompson, being announced, on motion, similar thanks were unanimously presented to him.

The company then being destitute of commissioned officers, after mature and dispassionate deliberation, (by an unanimous vote) adopted the following resolutions:—

Resolved, That the "Alexandria Independent Blues" do cease to act as a company.

Resolved, That a Committe of five be appointed to collect and take charge of the musical instruments and other property of the company.

Resolved, That when more auspicious circumstances shall occur, those gentlemen at this date attached to the company pledge themselves to re-organize.

Resolved, That the Blues, will on Saturday the 17th inst. parade in full uniform, for the purpose of disbanding; and that our late officers be requested to command upon the occasion.

The committee appointed under the second resolution above are, Messrs. I. P. Thompson, Samuel Smith, Thomas L. Martin, Robert N. Windsor, and J. H. Smoot.

The Treasurer having made his report, on motion, it was Resolved, That the surplus funds in the Treasurers hands be presented to the Missionary Society of Alexandria.

The proceedings of this meeting were by an unanimous vote ordered to be published, and the Company adjourned sine die.

THUNDER GUST.

A very violent gale from S. E. set in here on Friday evening about 10 o'clock, with occasional heavy showers, which continued with little intermission or variation of wind, until a little after 2 P. M. on Saturday; at which time the wind suddenly shifted to the northward, bringing with it clouds of almost nocturnal darkness, obliging many to light candles for their dinner table. This was a forerunner of the awful thunder gust and torrent of rain and hail which soon succeeded, and which was more severe than any ever before recollected in this city, as to duration and violence. The wind, during this appalling period, blew from every point of the compass, and kept as it were, the highly charged clouds hovering over the city. To heighten this terrific scene, in the midst of the blaze from the heavens, the fire bells were rung, and our firemen, with fire! fire! falling from their lips, were seen literally wading in all directions through the streets, to seek the cause of alarm, for the purpose of affording relief. And here let it be remarked, that no men could have done more, none could have been more promptly at their posts. By this time, every one was prepared to hear, what, in imagination, they had predicted; but we are agreeably disappointed in having so little to relate in the way of calamity, when so much was expected.

How awful and majestically grand are the thunders and fiery clouds of heaven! How insignificant, compared with such a scene, is all human greatness! and yet such is the goodness of GOD, that he thus purifies the air, that our frail bodies may not perish. Thanks be to infinite Goodness!

The following are the only instances of damage that we have yet heard of.

The schooner Thames, Capt. Winant, lying in Coffee-House-slip, and loaded for Richmond, was struck—the electric fluid took her foremast, descended to the hold, and set the cargo below on fire; but, from the alacrity of our firemen, the flames was soon extinguished, though not untill her cargo was considerably damaged, principally by the water thrown into her. Her ground tier consisted of hay and hogsheads of spirits—the residue of the cargo being dry goods, glass, &c. Some boxes of looking-glass plates that were stowed near the foremast, were broken to pieces by the electric concussion. The foremast of the vessel is splintered, and must be replaced. Some of her crew in the forecastle were considerably stuned, and two of them were knocked down, but it is supposed they will recover. One man had his trowsers partially torn from his legs, and he was uninjured! About 100 of glass panes were broken in the stores opposite where the Thames lies, and many persons in the neighborhood were thrown from their seats.

The house of Mr. Nicholas C. Everit, corner of Anthony and Elm-streets, was struck, and part of the roof and cornice-gutter ripped off; but none of the family were any otherwise affected than severely shocked.

The rope-walk of Messrs. Barbarin, Stanton and Co. at Brooklyn, was also set on fire by the lightning, and the workehouse and about ten feet of the walk, burnt, with some yarn, &c. About ten feet of an adjoining rope-walk was pulled down to prevent the flame from reaching it.

It is remarkable, that very different from the usual state of weather immediately after a thunder gust, the wind set in again from the eastward, and rain, at intervals, fell all the afternoon, and in the evening it blew a gale from E. N. E.

The house of Samuel Swartout, Esq. at Hoboken, was also struck with lightning, and one of the chimneys and part of the roof partially destroyed. The shock was great, but no person injured. Mr. S. who at the time was on the causeway, was struck on the shoulder, and other persons in the neighborhood, experienced the effects of the lightning.

An attempt was made on Thursday night to rob the dwelling house of R. F. Miller, esq. No. 354, Broadway. It is probable the villains secreted themselves in the house during the day, as the family, on retiring to bed, secured all the doors, and in the morning they found the back door was open, through which the rogues escaped.—They forced the door of a store room on the basement story, where they procured a spermaceti candle, and having lit it at the kitchen fire, proceeded to rummage the house—but fortunately found but little which they thought proper to take. An apartment in which the family plate had been formerly kept, was broke open, but a new place for keeping it having lately been provided, the robbers did not find it—and for some reason, they did not take either of three large silver waiters which lay exposed to their view upon the sideboard. From the quantity of the candle consumed, it appears they continued their search throughout the house for nearly two hours, yet only the following articles are missed:—12 silk and cambric handkerchiefs, 10 cambric cravats, 2 cotton shirts, and 1 servant's handkerchief. The cambric handkerchiefs are marked C. M. and one the name in whole length of the letters, M A F M, marked with silk; the rest marked R F M, also with silk.

NEW-BRUNSWICK.

A contest of some interest has arisen between Gov. Smyth, and the House of Assembly of the British province of New-Brunswick. It appears, that the Governor directed that a duty of one shilling should be paid on every ton of ship timber exported; the object of which was declared to be to prevent the waste and destruction of the King's woods. The House of Assembly considered this as an infringement on their prerogative to institute taxes, and passed a resolution reprobating the measure in strong terms. This produced a message from the Governor, denouncing the resolution, as interfering with the Executive authority, asserting that the duty was not of the nature of a direct tax; and expressing his expectation that the Resolution would be rescinded. On the 23d March, the Assembly took the message into consideration; when a motion was made to expunge the resolution from the journals of the House—which was decided as follows:—

YEAS—Messrs. Humbert, Miles, Wilmot, and Allen.—4

NAYS—Messrs. Easterbrooks, Pagan, Porter, Smith, Chapman, Johnston, Ward, Peters, Calverley, Scovil, Agrew, Wetmore, Brittain, Yeamans, M'Kay, Campbell, Simonds, Dow, and Fraser—19.

So the motion did not prevail; and the resolution was sustained. Immediately after this decision, the Governor dissolved the Assembly! This is considered as an "appeal to the people," who will probably return the same members, and thus fix the Legislative and Executive authorities in permanent hostility. The effect will be, that the Assembly will deny the usual supplies; and the Governor can only help himself by a redissolution, or by repealing the timber duty. The revolution in the United States originated in a three penny duty on tea.—Many of those who voted in the negative above, are decendants of the Americans who emigrated in 1783; who appear to have inherited a portion of the Old Whig spirit of their ancestors, whatever may have been the tory notions of their fathers.

WEST-INDIA NEWS.

We extract the following summary from a file of the Jamaica Courant, from the 15th of February to the 10th March, received at the Reading Room:—

A letter from Curracoa of 3d Feb. details some military operations on the Main, in which the Patriots were successful. The island of Margarita is well fortified and supplied, and is the principal depot of arms and ammunition: the Governor's guard consists of 1,000 dragoons.—The Danish authorities at St. Thomas's have agreed to admit into their ports, independent vessels of war, and their prizes, with permission to dispose of the latter.

The United States ship John Adams, capt. Wadsworth, in 15 days from New-York, put into Port Royal on the 16th Feb. for supplies, and sailed on the 21st for La Vera Cruz.

A letter from Margarita, dated Feb. 14, announces that the National Congress of Venezuela had been installed: troops continually arriving from England; a loan of £100,000 had been obtained in London in aid of the Patriot cause.—Gen. M'Gregor was at Aux-Cayes on the 1st March preparing to sail with an expedition consisting of 4 armed ships and brigs and 500 troops against Porto Bello. It was reported that Col. English had arrived at Angostura with troops in 10 transports. The whole force when arrived, would be about 7000 men.

A large ship, having "General Jackson" painted on her stern, with a cargo of Brazil sugar, elephant's teeth and hides, was lately run into a bay in the Danish island of St. John's—the cargo was purchased by persons from St. Thomas's whither it was transported. It was believed that the ship was American, that she was last from the Brazils, and that the Captain had been murdered by the crew; it was also reported that she was a prize to one of Artigas's privateers.

Admiral Harvey having retired from his command on the Barbados station, has been succeeded by Admiral Campbell.—A shock of an Earthquake was experienced at Jamaica on the 12th Feb.

ALEXANDRIA:
FRIDAY MORNING, APRIL 23, 1819.

Captain Hadlock, of the schooner Samuel Tyler, arrived at Norfolk from St. Pierres, Martinique, reports the market as tolerable good for American produce, there not being much in that port. Molasses 28 cents; sugar 8 dollars; coffee 25 cents; flour 12 dollars.

SHIPWRECK.

The Portuguese schnr. Pharo, Captain Montere, 42 days from Pernambuco, bound to Philadelphia, with a cargo of hides, sugars and molasses, was cast away on wreck near Smith's Island, on the night of the 3d inst. captain and crew saved—the latter crossed over-land to Northampton Courthouse, (Eastern shore of Va.) whence they took passage in one of the packets and arrived here last night. They state that the sugars have principally been lost, but the hides and molasses nearly all saved. The vessel's spars, together with the standing and running rigging had nearly all been got ashore, and that cap. M. remained there to attend the sale of those articles. The vessel they say, will probably never be got off again.

[Norfolk Herald.

The Steam-Ship Savannah, arrived at this port last evening, from New-York, after a boisterous passage of 7 days. On he approach to the city hundreds of our citizens flocked to the bank of the river, and while she ascended, saluted her with loud and long huzzas! The utmost confidence is placed in her security. Her wheels are so constructed that they can be unshipped in a very short time, so as to make her navigable like any other vessel, with sails, whenever the weather shall be stormy or in the least degree dangerous. She is intended a packet between Liverpool and this place, and her accommodations are of the most tasty and brilliant kind. It redounds much to the honor of Savannah, when it is said, that it was owing to the enterprise of some of her spirited citizens, that the first attempt was made to cross the Atlantic ocean, in a vessel propelled by steam. The Savannah, we understand, will make a trip or two between this and Charleston; and then perhaps, will go to Havannah and New-Orleans, and immediately return to this place.—She will then proceed to Liverpool, via New-York unless a sufficiency of passengers should offer direct. We sincerely hope the owners may reap a rich reward for their spirited and laudable undertaking. [Sav. Repub. 7th inst.

SALE OF OFFICES.

The following opinion upon an interesting case, was delivered by his honor Judge Young, at the late Kittaning Court, and has been placed in our hands, by a gentleman of the bar, for publication.

Armstrong County—March Term, 1819.

The Admin. of James Sloan, dec.

The Admin. of Guy Hiccox, dec.

This suit was instituted on a note of which the following is a copy:—

"For value received, I promise to pay James Sloan the sum of three hundred dollars, lawful money of Pennsylvania, within two years from this date, on condition that I obtain the appointment to the office of Prothonotary, and the other offices in Armstrong county, now held by James Sloan—he now having resigned in my favor. GUY HICCOX

Kittaning, Dec. 19, 1815.

Defendant pleaded payment, with leave to set off and give special matter in evidence.

One hundred and fifty dollars were paid on account of the note.

YOUNG, President—to the jury.

The main question is, whether the note declared upon, which is upon condition, &c. is founded upon a good consideration or not. If the consideration be illegal the note is void—otherwise, the plaintiffs are entitled to recover. Upon abstract principles of honor every man is bound by his engagement, when he derives a benefit from the person to whom the engagement is made, and no fraud intervenes.—But howsoever obligatory such a contract may be in point of honor, if it will be injurious to the public welfare in its consequences, it ought not to be enforced by a legal remedy. It appears that James Sloan held certain offices in this county, of a great public trust, which he resigned in favor of Guy Hiccox, who, it may therefore be presumed, was appointed to those offices, in consequence of the late Mr. Sloan's special recommendation to the former Governor. I have too good opinion of that gentleman, however I may have differed from him in political principles, to believe he was made acquainted with this bargain. If he had, it may fairly be presumed the appointment of Mr. Hiccox would not have taken place. It would have been opening a door for the buying of public offices, incompatible with public virtue, which when once generally corrupted, government, by whatever name it may be termed, becomes corrupt along with the community. In a government such as ours, founded upon public virtue, as it ought to be, the greatest care ought to be taken by the citizens to preserve it pure. This is peculiarly the province of those who administer the laws; and we have therefore no hesitation in giving it as our opinion, that the contract in question is contrary to the maxims of sound policy, and is therefore void at law.

As to the recovery back of the 150 dollars, it cannot be done. It is no set off—for that suppposes an original legal contract. Your verdict ought, therefore, to be generally for the defendant.

Verdict for the defendant.

METEOROLOGICAL, &c.

H. Bry, Esq. Register of the Land Office at Ouachita, reports for February, 1819—

Mean temperature for the month, 58, 57.
Highest do 78, on the 23d day.
Least do 29, 22d day.
Ouachita, in lat. 31 deg. 45 min. North.
Lon. 14 deg. 45 min. West of the Capitol.

"During this month vegetation was rapid until the 13th, when it was slightly checked. The white frost on the 22nd and 23d did no injury to the peach and pear trees then in blossom. The apple trees now (28th) begin to blossom; the peaches are formed: green peas fit for the table in a few days.—In the beginning of the month the Aspara- gus appeared on the table: it now abounds. The forest trees are all putting out their buds: Sassafras in bloom. Sycamore, (Platanus Occidentalis Linn.) has small leaves. The Plane (Acer campestris Linn) has already lost its flowers. The wild geese (Anser Canadensis) have passed. Swallows (Hirunda) of three kinds, arrive in great numbers.

"The steam-boat Monroe, the first which anchored on our banks, arrived on the sixth of March, in six days and a half from New-Orleans. She can return in three days. It is the best and safest navigation in the Union." JOSIAH MEIGS.

Gunston for Sale.

THIS elegant estate is situated on the Potomac, 16 miles below Alexandria—it is bounded on three sides by the Potomac and Pohick creek, and contains nearly 3,000 acres of land, level and fertile, to which are attached six shad and herring fisheries, two of which command the river channel. This land will be laid off in four tracts, so as to have one or more fisheries to each; these tracts will be again divided if requisite. This estate is level and beautifully situated, very fertile, and remarkably healthy. Plaister acts with an effect equal to that of any part of Virginia or Pennsylvania.—I have used 500 bushels in twelve months, and such is its beneficial operation, that were I to keep this land I should considerably increase the quantity. A manufacturing mill is distant about two miles, on a stream navigable for vessels carrying 1200 bushels of wheat, where the Baltimore and Dist. of Columbia prices are given for grain: being bounded on 3 sides by water, a small extent only of fence is necessary to inclose the whole: it would be admirably adapted to grazing. The improvements are a large and very substantial brick mansion, 40 by 70 feet, with every necessary outhouse, three commodious barns, houses for Negroes, and fish houses at each of the fisheries. 120,000 bricks and 1000 bushels of lime are just burnt on the premises. There is a considerable extent of live fence, both useful and ornamental, two orchards of well selected apples and peach, besides an abundance of other choice fruit. More than 150 acres are in clover, 200 in corn, and land is in preparation for sowing 250 bushels of small grain. Any quantity of hay can be cut from the low grounds, some of which (and all might,) have been reclaimed at a trifling expense. The river and creeks, abound with wild fowl, particularly canvass backs the woods with deer and a variety of other game. Mules, cattle, highly improved sheep, farming utensils and household furniture can be had. The terms of sale will be accommodating. Property in any of the cities, negroes, bank stock, western lands, or lands near the Ridge, will be taken in payment.—Letters must be addressed to me at Pohick Church, Fairfax county, Virginia.

September 4 GEORGE MASON.

Valuable Property for Sale.

THE subscriber is desirous of selling a handsomely situated farm, on Hunting creek, in Fairfax county Virginia, adjoining the Mount Vernon estate and the lands of general Thomson Mason, four miles from Alexandria, containing about 240 acres, 80 of which are in wood—40 to 50 in thriving meadow of clover and timothy—a part of the residue recently seeded with wheat and rye, and clover, last spring—the whole enclosed with a new post and rail fence.—The improvements are, a comfortable and convenient frame dwelling house and kitchen, smoke house, poultry house, granary and stables.—There is on this place a rich and productive garden, and a large body of marsh meadow, from which may be saved annually 100 tons of hay, nearly as nutricious as the best timothy or clover.—With the farm would be sold a number of very valuable horses, cows and sheep; waggon, carts, and a variety of farming utensils and household and kitchen furniture; corn, oats and rye, and 40 tons hay. Also, adjoining the one above described, a farm containing 160 acres, recently enclosed, on which is a brick house, which a trifling expense would render comfortable. The soil is excellent, and a considerable part might be easily converted into meadow.—it would be sold with the other or separately. Also, a number of valuable servants, male and female. To prevent unnecessary application, he would observe, that they will only be sold to persons residing in the District or its vicinity, and not to be carried from it. The subscriber will also sell the greater part of his household furniture, which is new and handsome. For terms of all or any part of the above property, apply to NOBLET HERBERT, esq. or
